

Augusta is one of the oldest townships in Ontario with roots dating back to the 1700s. Here you will find both historic houses and ultra-modern estates. Augusta communities include Algonquin, Domville, Maitland, Maynard, North Augusta, and Roebuck. Algonquin is a quiet residential community and is home to the township's library. Domville is a hamlet north of Prescott and boasts the Community Park. Maitland is a riverfront community that is also known for its recreational facility (MERC) and its ski trails. Attractions include Homewood Museum, Blue Church, Point Baril, Antique Wheels in Motion and the North Augusta Labour Day Festival.

The Township of Augusta boasts such large industries as the Ultramar Maitland Terminal, Nitrochem, Prax-Air, Invista Canada and Evonik Industries. Augusta is where many small businesses and agricultural operations thrive. The Business Park in Augusta is strategically located on County Road 2 near Highway 401. An increasing number of small businesses are calling Augusta Township home. Entrepreneurs from many business sectors are drawn to the quiet country ambiance of the area.
