

City of Brockville

www.Brockville.com

Brockville has long been famous for its convenient location, picturesque beauty, superb restaurants and challenging recreational facilities. With a stunning view of the St. Lawrence River and the 1000 Islands at its doorstep, Brockville is truly one of Canada's most scenic settings. Did you also know that Brockville was chosen as a designated safe community worldwide by the World Health Organization? The results from a community survey showed that 97% of the city residents felt safe living here. It concluded 99% felt safe in their home, 98% outside in daytime and 85% at night walking anywhere in the city! This one factor is the largest appeal for families and retirees to consider Brockville as their place of choice to live.

For businesses, this prime geographical location has provided the city with excellent access to all services. The city is centrally located between Ottawa, Montreal and Toronto and is within minutes to two international bridges to northern New York State. This presents the convenience and economical location for those wishing to locate to a small centre. Situated in the middle of the St. Lawrence/Great Lakes area and near one of the world's largest inland waterways, Brockville offers businesses accessibility to major commercial international markets as well as a vast array of pleasure activities to the tourists and locals.
