The Township of Athens is part of the region's heartland and is famous for its lakes and cottage country. Athens, the village, is accented with 11 wall murals depicting the area's rich history. Charleston Lake, considered the jewel of the area, is known for its breathtaking beauty, privacy and peacefulness. The village of Charleston overlooks the lake, a destination for boaters and anglers on both sides of the border. Athens holds its Cornfest and Farmersville Steam festivals each year. The Parade of Lights is a top event the first weekend in December. The Fireworks Festival is a summer highlight in early July and the Charleston Lake Regatta is held on the long weekend in August.

The Township of Athens has all the amenities of a larger community but with a small-town atmosphere and strong agricultural roots. A cross section of this community's businesses includes G. Tackaberry and Sons Construction Ltd, R.A. Howard Bus Service Ltd., Knowledge Flow Corp., McCann Building Services Ltd. and Willard's Bakery Products.
